Add on Colson pinning rap on Ehrlichman

(Possibly bearing on how Ehrlicman come to understand what happened is his loss of control when testifying in his own defense 12/10/74. He broke down an wept, losing his voice with his control, causing Judge Sirica to order a recess to permit him ro regard his composure. Ehrlichman was testifying to Nixon's offer of attorney's fees and any other help. Ehrlichman broke in midsentence in quoting himself as telling Nixon that "sometime I would like him to explain to our children..." . WxPost 12/11/74)
